5.0 DETAILS OF DECISION MAKING FUNCTIONS

Local Laws and policies applying to this Council's district only, are made by Council under the Local Government Act 1995 (s3.11 to 3.17).

Council may provide that contravention of a provision of the Local Law is an offence, and may provide for penalties to be imposed (s3.10).

5.1 Procedure for making Local Laws

With the exception of the Health Act (State Government Approval required for Local Laws made under the Health Act).

Summary of the purpose and effect of the proposed Local Law is read aloud at the Council Meeting by the President.

Statewide public notice given on at least two days by the placement of advertisements in the West Australian Newspaper stating:

- the intention to make a Local Law, the purpose and effect of which is summarised in the notice;
- a copy of the proposed Local Law may be inspected or obtained at any place specified in the notice; and
- submissions about the proposed Local Law may be made to Council by a day specified in the notice, being a day that is not less than 6 weeks after the notice is first given;

As soon as the notice is given, copies of the proposed Local Law and notice are given to the appropriate Ministers; and

A copy of the proposed Local Law is provided to any person requesting it.

After the last day for submissions, Council considers any submissions made and may pass the Local Law by a special majority vote (i.e. if more than 11 members of Council 75% majority or less than 11 members by absolute majority).

After making the Local Law, it is published in the Gazette and a copy of it given to the appropriate Ministers.

Statewide public notice is then given:

- stating the title of the Local Law;
- summarising the purpose and effect;
- stating the day it comes into effect;
- advising that copies may be inspected or obtained from the Shire Office.

6.0 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THE FORMULATION OF POLICY AND PERFORMANCE OF COUNCIL FUNCTIONS

6.1 Committees or bodies which involve public representation

No committees or bodies which involve public representation exist within Council at this time. Various Councillors are involved in local committees such as Railway Station Society, Historical Society, Development Group, Environmental Advisory Committee, Tidy Towns Committee and Cemetery Advisory Committee.

6.2 Committees that don't involve direct public representation but may be open to the public

As of 2nd May 1997, committees meeting with delegated authority, i.e. more than half the members of Council on the committee, will have the authority to make decisions at the Committee Meeting, without the need for these decisions to go back to Council for ratification. These Meetings will be open to the public.

Council has no committee in existence at this time holding such delegated authority.

6.3 Participation in Committees

Council members are elected to committees by the following process:

- i) members identify which committees they have an interest in sitting on;
- ii) members vote to appoint committee members from the list of members who have indicated their interest in being on a particular committee.
